

Dear madams and sirs:

Please know that I am opposed to the above-referenced bill. It is ludicrous to think that the government would know how to care for the health of a child better than their own mother and medical practitioner. As a father of two and grandfather of six, I prevail upon you to oppose this as strongly as you can.

Thank you!

Preston Oliver
W. Salem