

I oppose mandatory vaccines. Upon reading the inserts and the amount and types of side effects, I believe it should be my choice to subject my family to the possible side effects listed. It should remain a choice, for medical, religious or other reasons. Forcing the use of pharmaceuticals is unconscionable.

Thank you-
Sabrina Muscat