

I am in opposition to the proposed bill which would strip citizens of their right to choose, which violates not only their human rights, but constitutional rights as well. Where there is a risk there must be a choice, and taking away an individuals right to choose what they allow in their bodies and their children is unconstitutional in every sense. If these entities are so powerful and wonderful there'd be no reason to force them on families and children.

Thank you