

Good afternoon committee:

Please consider helping to make home births accessible to more families by making it a bonafide insurance option.

All of my six children were born at home which for our family was the only option.

It is time to restore our democratic principles in consideration of the many different citizens that rely on house members making wise decisions that encompass our varied agendas as unalienable members of this melting pot, the United States of America.

Thank you.

suzia aufderheide

321 north mountain

ashland, Oregon 97520

Sent from my iPad