

I strongly oppose HB 3063.

The government should have no right to mandate what a parent injects into their child.
If a parent chooses, for whatever reason, not to have all immunizations (approximately 19 at this time), the child should not be banned from public education.

Cindy Tobiasson