

I am against this bill. You would be taking away my parental and religious rights. This would violate our freedom as american people. No on HB 3063