

I am a resident of Redmond, Oregon and I am writing to ask you to rethink house bill 3063. It is a violation of educational rights for our children. Most Oregon children who have exemptions have some vaccines but not the ones that they have had adverse reactions to. You cannot obtain a medical exemption for a moderate or mild reaction but people like me refuse to risk a moderate reaction turning into severe next time. Thank you
Samantha blake