

Hi, I absolutely object to the mandatory vaccination bill. It completely goes against the freedom of the people of Oregon to require parents to vaccinate their children. If vaccines are so reliable, then people that do vaccinate should have to worry about kids that are not vaccinated in schools.

Again I'm strongly against this bill.

Yuval Zonnenschein

Sent from my iPhone