

I support House Bill 2020. The scare tactics of the opposition do not address anything but fear. This legislation is only a small step in preventing local disasters. It is a small solution for our unimaginable global crisis that is imminent if we ostriches continue to keep our heads in the sand.

It would ultimately provide clean energy, clean jobs and a cleaner world. It is a win-win on an economic and environmental basis.

Richard Newman

Richard Newman, Ashland, Oregon