

My name is Roy Leigh and I have a daughter named Vivian Leigh. Ever since my daughter has been born there have been forms of neglect from the mom. Now as a father your number one priority is to protect your children. With a number of reports from Dhs and Vivian having a voice there is now justice.

With out 50/50 support I wouldn't of been able to get a lot of things to protect my daughter. The mom has put 2 restraining orders against me including supervised visits. I also had to do conflict parenting class as well.

Folks, it is the only way to fight for your children because fathers have a voice too.

Best Regards,
Roy Leigh
