

Vaccinations have saved more lives and prevented more suffering than any other modern medical advancement. They are safe and effective. Exempting a child from routine vaccinations puts all children and some adults at risk and should require a verifiable medical rationale.

Mandy Pennefather

mandypennefather@gmail.com

88741 Ermi Bee rd

Springfield , Oregon 97478