

Do NOT take away my right to decline vaccinations for my children. The government should not be involved in this health care decision. They are MY children and the decision to vaccinate or not to vaccinate is MINE to make. Something that could have serious side effects should not be forced on anyone. The idea is ludicrous and completely unacceptable!!

Rachel Rowlison