

It is imperative that each governing entity move forward quickly and forcefully to reduce our carbon footprint. It is not easy to be among the first but Oregon is in the position to show the nation that clean energy equates with job creations. We must not give in to lies from the fossil fuel industry.

Please support a strong Clean Energy Jobs bill and get this country working for the future of our grandchildren not the wallets of the oil and coal executives.

Thank you.

Gretchen King
Ashland