

I'm in support of John Lively ending daylight saving time in Oregon. It puts an undue burden on people for one extra hour of day light. It takes a few weeks for me to get used to the time change. My sleep schedule is disrupted and I'm tired until I get acclimated to the time change.

Thank you,

Julia Smith

Springfield, OR