

Joyce Bernheim

1810 NE Stanton Street, Portland, OR 97212

Phone: 503-702-1132, E-Mail: joycebernheim@gmail.com

Experience

Miller, Nash, Graham & Dunn LLP, Partner and Associate 1986-2002

- Health care business law, including both specialized health care regulatory advice and general business advice in the areas of corporate governance, antitrust, transactions, hospital medical staff matters, and employment of physicians. Clients included large health systems, public hospitals and health districts, medical groups, physicians, private insurance companies, a Medicaid managed care organization, school districts, and Educational Service Districts. Clients located all across the state.

Stoel Rives, LLP 1982-1986

- Litigation, utility, and health law

Civic Activities 1993-present

- Nonprofit Boards and Committees: Numerous positions, including board president and member, Portland Energy Conservation, Inc. (1984-1992); board member, Insights Teen Parent Program, Inc. (1987-1992), chair and member, Providence Child Center Community Advisory Board (1988-1998)
- Professional Organizations: Numerous positions, including president, Oregon Society of Hospital Attorneys; chair and member, Health Law Section of Oregon State Bar; editor and contributor, Oregon Health Law Manual; frequent speaker to professional conferences; played role in drafting of Oregon Health Plan legislation and law on equipment sharing by hospitals
- Public Service: Portland Public Schools (chair and member, Special Education Parent Advisory Council, 2001-2007; chair and member, Committee on Accelerating Student Achievement, focusing on achievement gap issues, 2002-2004); OregonFirst (board chair and vice-chair, special education parent training organization for Hispanics and other minorities), (2005-2010); Oregon Pediatric Society Open Community Forum (chair, Screening and Identification Work Group, 2007-2009); Oregon Health Resources Commission Subcommittee on Autism Spectrum Disorders (evaluating evidence basis for autism interventions, 2007-2008); Oregon Commission on Autism Spectrum Disorders (member, 2009-2015; chair, Screening, Identification and Assessment Subcommittee, 2009-2016, 2017-present); member, Autism Society of Oregon Board of Ambassadors (2015 - present); Differential Identification Work Group (member and facilitator, group of leaders in the identification of ASD in health care and education who are developing internet-based training modules on the differential identification of ASD for educators and health care professionals)

Education

New York University School of Law, JD 1979-1982

Editor, Moot Court Board

Yale University, MPhil 1975-1979

French

University of California at Berkeley, AB with Distinction 1971-1974