

Dear Chair Williamson and Members of the House Judiciary Committee, I am writing to you today to express my support of University Policing. I, Madeline Reznick, am a student of the University of Oregon and I am personally awe-stricken that such a valuable program would even be considered to be removed. Given the history of unexpected events that campuses across the country experience, I see every reason for continuing to fund these hard-working programs. How IN THE WORLD are students focused on learning academic and life lessons expected to patrol and maintain their campus simultaneously? I would love to divulge into the exact points, reasons, and necessities for Campus Policing; however I have finals coming up this week so I will withhold my lengthy thoughts and simply state, outright, that I believe campuses should have policing and getting rid of it is purely ignorant.

Sincerely,

Madeline Reznick

Student of UO
