

Surely you don't really think that employers should pay people for over half the year when they aren't even working for them?

Stop and think about that--zero sense. Are you just trying to destroy all farming in Oregon? thank you for your reconsideration.

Penny Miltenberger