

The Jordan Cove pipeline may financially help a few in the short run but greatly harm millions in the short and long run, its damage to the environment, air quality, earthquake safety, landowner physical and psychological well-being, positive movement away from fossil fuel reliance would be immense!
Please don't allow it. It's the "big guys" money vs. the overall health of the rest of us, Oregonians + Americans.

John Dreyfuss