

We don't send a fireman to a fire without a hose, an ax or fireproof clothing. Having an officer without a way to protect others and them selves is like telling NASCAR drivers they can't have seatbelts. Some jobs are unpleasant and require tools some find objections. It is the way of the world and a necessity. Vote appropriately and thank you