

We are extremely disappointed that allowing children to vote is even being considered. Not mature enough to rent a car, buy cigarettes/alcohol or enter into legal contracts but old enough to influence how the country runs? Ridiculous! I can see voting parties in school classrooms taking place with influence and fraud dominating election results like we have never imagined could happen.

George Perkins

George E. Perkins, ABR, CNE, CRS

Principal Broker-OR

Designated Broker-WA

20/20 Properties, Inc.

perkins@Realtor.com

www.HomeWrk.com

www.Facebook.com/localproperties

503-492-1776 X 1

Important: Agency Disclosures & Advisories

