

I'm writing in strong support of Oregon Wi-Fi Radiation Exposure bill SB 283. I'm very pleased to see this bill and strongly advocate its passage. It is well past time, that state (and federal) authorities take an active approach in doing comprehensive research into independent studies on any biological effects from wireless radiation.

Sincerely,
Sarah Wylie
Eugene, OR