

Animal abuser registries are intended to provide a resource for police, shelters and adoption centers to identify convicted animal abusers who are trying to adopt or purchase an animal or who are involved in new allegations of abuse.

Animal abuser registries, which are modeled on registries kept for convicted sex offenders, have gained popularity across the country. Legislation in some states makes the information on the registries available only to law enforcement and animal control and shelter facilities' personnel. Other state bills allow access for members of the public as well. Access to this information is crucial in keeping companion animals out of the hands of people with a record of abuse, cruelty or neglect.

While many states have proposed the adoption of an animal abuser registry — including New York State — it remains a struggle to convince lawmakers and law enforcement officials that it is worth the time and money to implement a database of statewide offenders. A national database has also been considered by animal advocacy groups, but this undertaking would rely on the voluntary compliance of thousands of individual police and sheriffs' departments from around the country.

Please follow the lead of Tennessee and implement an animal abuse registry in Oregon.

Stacy	Hill	Beaverton	OR	97008	Animals in Oregon need to be protected. If we have an easy way to keep them out of danger, then we should do it. No one with a history of animal abuse should ever be allowed to own an animal again. This registry can make that happen.

June	Stephens	BEAVERTON	OR	97008	Animals should not be purchased or adopted by someone who is an animal abuser! Access to information concerning individuals who have or are abusing animals is absolutely crucial to keep animals out of the hands of abusers!
Cynthia	Bettencourt	Beaverton	OR	97008	Anyone who has abused an animal should never be allowed to do so again. A registry would help prevent innocent animals from falling into the hands of these sick individuals
Diane	Craig	Beaverton	OR	97008	Because abuses must be communicated between agencies and abusers must be properly held accountable for their actions not only for the harm they have inflicted upon an innocent animal but because of what they escalate in to.
Bradley	Holt	Beaverton	OR	97008	Because no animal deserves to be treated badly
Diana	Grappasonno	Beaverton	OR	97008	I worked in an animal shelter for five years and I can attest to the fact that this is a desperately-needed piece of legislation. It is heart-breaking to know that animal control officers work hard to remove animals from neglectful/abusive situations and then the abuser can simply drive 10 extra minutes to the shelter in the next town and adopt another innocent animal to abuse.
Chelsea	Krook-King	Beaverton	OR	97008	We can not safely adopt out animals if we don't have a database to protect them. Without an animal abuse registry, dog abuse and dog fighting will continue. The dogs from dog fighting rings will end up dead, horribly distrustful and could be the cause more dog attacks or back in the cycle of it all. That's one reason out of hundreds to protect the lives and safety of the pets we claim to treat like family.

Shasten	Sprague	Clackamas	OR	97015	No one should be abused, helpless creatures who only want to love and be loyal are especially included.
Nancy	Lakey	Clackamas	OR	97015	This should to be implemented so everyone knows who they are. We need to do more to protect all Animals.
Adam	Deweese	Clackamas	OR	97015	To most pet owners an animal is a member of the family. To many like my Wife and I our cat Camo and Lab Bailey are our only children. They deserve the same rights as any human life does. If anyone intentionally abuses an animal they should be held accountable the same as they should with a human. An innocent life is an innocent life.
Susan	Gervasi	Clackamas	OR	97015	Unfortunate we have grown a segment in our country that are abusers, whether it is animal cruelty/domestic violence/predators on the public and our children!! We must be able to protect and prevent as much as we can!!

Susan	Wirrig	Oregon City	OR	97045	An animal abuse registry would improve the welfare for animals in that the information would prevent the abuse by alerting an agency to an individual's status on the registry. What a win-win for people involved in homing animals and not least for the animals themselves!

latifeh	shafiee	Wilsonville	OR	97070	For justice . abuser has to get punished

Jackie	Critser	Wilsonville	OR	97070	people who abuse animals almost always have a history of it. They are very often repeat offenders and derive satisfaction from injuring the small and helpless. Show me a person who abuses animals and I'll show you someone who committed other antisocial or criminal acts. There is a particular lack of sensitivity, hostility, and depravity with people who are abusive to animals and the likelihood of repeat offenses is far to common. Animal abuse has a number of things in common with violence against people and it is not uncommon for animal abusers to ultimately commit violence against people. For this, and a number of other reasons, it is important that animal abusers be kept track of so that they cannot continue to perpetrate violence against animals OR humans. We need a registry to alert law enforcement whenever there is a likelihood that these abusive personalities are being monitored to prevent future crimes.

Paula	Eppler	Happy Valley	OR	97086	Animal abusers, no matter how they appear in public, are dangerous people and I would prefer to avoid them. Others should know that they might not be safe caregivers for human beings, and to keep their pets away from these people.
Mo	Nemoda	Happy Valley	OR	97086	This animal abuse registry is crucial and important for numerous reasons. Not just for animals but domestic violence towards partners and children. Knowing who is on the list would help many people and animals. Apple doesn't fall far from the tree if they hurt animals most likely and chances are they hurt the ones they love mentally verbally and or physically. This with Lyle and intervention and peoples actions would be more accountable and responsible. I whole heartedly feel this registration is absolutely necessary

G.	Gibson	Portland	OR	97202	Abusers of animals go on to abuse people. I think we need to know who they are and prevent them from obtaining fire arms.
Myra	Freedman	Portland	OR	97202	Animal abuse is hideous and must not be tolerated! We need stronger and more severe punishment for cruelty. Stop abusers from owning any animals forever!
John M	Rodrigues	Portland	OR	97202	Cruelty is a criminal act that will degrade society.
Caitlin	Williams	Portland	OR	97202	Do the right thing and protect the voiceless!! Keep animals SAFE!
Sarah	Lombardi	Portland	OR	97202	For such horrific crimes that often receive far too lenient sentencing, if any, we must do our part to give voice to the victims. Animals are our companions, even becoming part of the family. Animal abusers are not emotionally stable members of society that deserve protection; they have a propensity to harm humans as well. Let's protect past and future victims, not criminals.
Susan	Grover	Portland	OR	97202	No one who mistreats animals should be able to have them.

Holly	Gallo	Portland	OR	97202	No thinking on this. A no brained. We need this to protect God's babies He entrusted to us. So easy to help ID those who should never be around animals. This needs to pass. The animal rescuers are all eyes on what you do here. And whether we will vote for anyone who doesn't support this again. The answer to that is a resounding NO.
Sally	Joughin	Portland	OR	97202	Prevent such criminals from acquiring a dog, if possible. This will help.
Wesley	Martusewicz	Portland	OR	97202	Protect animals up for adoption from known abusers!
Katherine	Wolfe	Portland	OR	97202	Right now, even if someone is caught abusing animals, they can move and buy or adopt more. The only way to try to stop this is an animal abuser registry.
Molly	Elwood	Portland	OR	97202	UGH yes. Stop people from abusing animals!

Libby	Harrington	Portland	OR	97206	Abuse of animals can be a predictor of partner abuse and child abuse, and can be a sign that domestic violence is occurring. This info is helpful in so many ways, not to mention that we owe adoptable animals our best protection.
Pamela	Burrell	Portland	OR	97206	Because this kind of abuse is not unlike domestic partner and child abuse. Abusing an animal should be considered and punished in the same way as any other heinous crime and the perpetrators should have to suffer the same type of punishment. We the public deserve to know who abuses animals and these abusers should under no circumstances be able to ever obtain or be present around animals again.
Heather	Stahlnecker	Portland	OR	97206	people who abuse animals need personal help. their chances of harming others is extremely high. their tyranny starts with animals.
Arlene	Stricker	Portland	OR	97206	Protecting animals is the humane thing to do.
m	komisar	portland	OR	97206	The abuse of one animal is documented to be repeated with a likelihood of escalating. It is the responsibility of individuals, of our community, to make sure that no animal suffers. A child abuser is kept from kids, a animal abuser need be kept from animals. Period!
Kathy	Rankin	PORTLAND	OR	97206	Yes because there are SICK people in the world who wish to harm animals and they should never be allowed to own any pets. Not ever.

Andrea	Galick	PORTLAND	OR	97209	Every time I read or hear about the abuse of an animal I feel disgusted, dismayed, and heartbroken. I honestly can't even begin to understand the mentality of someone who could purposely harm an animal, let alone their own pet. And it infuriates me when I hear how easy it is for repeat offenders to have access to more animals. Honestly I don't even understand why there's a debate about having a registry for animal abusers. It just seems like common sense. How can there even be an argument against it? I have a dog, and I love him unconditionally. I don't consider him a pet, he's a very very important member of my family. His dad and I always say before we got him we were a happy couple, but with him we're a very happy family. If anyone ever harmed my dog, I would go after them with everything I have. This register of animal abusers should just be an automatic federal law.

Paul	Kisser	Portland	OR	97213	I feel extremely passionate regarding the issue of animal abuse (or any abuse for that matter). Please make an Animal Abuse Registry a reality and please prosecute offenders to the maximum allowable by law. Animal abuse is a disgusting fact of life that I sincerely hope is mitigated as much as possible. Thank you for your help in this endeavor.
Linore	Blackstone	Portland	OR	97213	Oregon legislature and Governor seem to be a bit blind to animals. Oregon Fish and Wildlife manage animals by targeting them.

Tana	Legry	Portland	OR	97215	We all know that individuals who abuse and torture animals are likely candidates for committing future crimes against humans. There needs to be a record of such crimes.

Kathryn	Chappelle	Portland	OR	97219	Animal abuse registries are important not only for the prevention of animal cruelty, but to keep those who have been proven to have a high likelihood of harming people in view before the public and law enforcement. This is doubly important, and the least someone guilty of animal abuse deserves.
Louise	Hodges	Portland	OR	97219	Animal abusers MUST be held accountable for their despicable behavior. A registry could help prevent users having access to more animals.

Tammy	Baker	Portland	OR	97219	Animal abusers should Never be allowed to own any animal ever again!!! Oregon needs to have a law against abusers forever!!
Dianne	Ensign	Portland	OR	97219	I care about the compassionate and respectful treatment of all animals, and I strongly support an animal abuser registry for Oregon.
Pilar	Hernandez-Wolfe	Portland	OR	97219	There must be accountability measures in place to ensure animal and human safety
DAN	SCOTT	portland	OR	97219	This is LONG OVERDUE!
Amy	Blake	Portland	OR	97219	Too many people turn up as pet hoarders who repeat their offenses. Out in the remote areas of the state, it's hard enough to check that pets are being well treated.
Dianne	Ford	Portland	OR	97219	We finally need to do something serious to these horrible people that abuse and torture animals. I have been saying for a very long time these actions should be labeled a felony. Now in most states it is just a slap on the wrist and a low misdemeanor. Needs to change!

Iris	Sasaki	TIGARD	OR	97224	Animals nee to be protected from the viciousness of some people. They have done nothing wrong, yet are beaten and neglected. No More.
Patricia	Biggs	Tigard	OR	97224	Humans must speak up for animals who cannot speak for themselves. Creating a registry helps keep abusers from gaining access to other animals. Those who abuse animals are often guilty of abusing people. We need to stop these inhumane humans!
Donna	Steadman	Portland	OR	97224	It's too easy for animal abusers to get another pet or other animal now. Many people will move to a new area and start repeating the same behavior.
Joycelyn	Cameron	Tigard	OR	97224	Makes sense. I love animals. Animals also deserve a good life and not a life of abuse. Animal abus can be horrific because they are helpless. Only we can defend and speak on their behalf and welfare.

Helen	Waid	Tigard	OR	97224	Oregon has the opportunity to show the rest of the nation how to deal with animal abusers. Let's help shelters and animal rescues make sure these animals go to good homes. Right now there's no way to know who they are releasing these animals to.

Rose	Alford	Portland	OR	97225	Animal abuse is bad for all of us. It also is indicative of human abuse and psychopathy.
Quinn	Miller	Portland	OR	97225	If you do even a few minutes of research, you will discover that there are truly horrifying cases of extreme cruelty to animals by some very violent and disturbed individuals. Many of these people are serial abusers and killers. Animals cannot speak for themselves. They are powerless and must rely on humans to protect them. Please do this. It's the right thing to do and it will make a huge difference. Thank you!
Susan	Rooney	Portland	OR	97225	Not only is animal abuse an indicator for domestic abuse and the likelihood of increasing antisocial behavior, the very act of torturing and tormenting an animal is heinous in its own right. We need more strict laws and the enforcement of them. We need to know if someone with such a dangerous and cruel predilection is living near us and our families. Thank you.
LENA	DILLER	PORTLAND	OR	97225	People need to know who these monsters are and hold them accountable and not let them keep hurting the innocent.

karen	naylor	Salem	OR	97301	I HAVE CALLED ON ANIMALS BEING ABUSED AND NOTHING WAS EVER DONE. THEY SENT ME ANOTHER NUMBER WHO SENT ME ANOTHER NUMBER. I FINALLY TOOK MATTERS INTO MY OWN HANDS AND BITCHED THE ABUSER OUT AND THREATENED HIM AND MADE HIM THINK SOMEONE GAVE A CRAP. HE KILLED A WHOLE FLOCK OF CROWS THAT NEVER BOTHERED ANYONE OR GOT INTO ANYTHING. WHAT IS THE USE OF MAKING LAWS NO ONE CARES ABOUT.
Nancy	Winner	Salem	OR	97301	I love all animals. they are here for a reason. not to be abused
lawrencia	berry	saalem	OR	97301	i love animals
Mary	Vorachek	Salem	OR	97301	People who abuse animals will not hesitate to abuse other people and children also.
Despo	Pullaro	Salem	OR	97301	This has to stop now where animals are treated badly & beaen, not feed, left out in the elements etc. Please make this law
Elana	Virgilio	Salem	OR	97301	This is absolutely crucial to protect the safety and wellbeing of our domestic animals who depend on us. The time for this is now.

Laura	Seltzer	Salem	OR	97302	As a lifelong Oregonian, I strongly support this idea. I used to volunteer at the Humane Society in Eugene, and I adopted my house rabbit from there too. Oregon is very progressive and compassionate in many ways. Let's show it even more by creating this registry.
Pamela	Cartwright	Salem	OR	97302	As an Oregonian, this is especially important to me that all animals be protected and defended!
Charles	Aylworth	Salem	OR	97302	Convicted animal abusers should never be allowed to own another helpless animal.
Danielle	Shearer	Salem	OR	97302	I live in Oregon and we need this because animals are innocent as children as far as I'm concerned!
Nolan	DeHart	SALEM	OR	97302	Oregon should and does lead the nation in many green policies, no line should be drawn between it and Animal protective legislation. For wild and domestic animals. We are better then this. Come on Oregon
Virginia	F Purvis	Salem	OR	97302	People have the responsibility of allowing other life to the rights of happiness and respect.
Angela	Norse	Salem	OR	97302	This is an important issue to me, my friends, and my family. We would appreciate your support.

Pamela	Escobar	Keizer	OR	97303	It is absolutely vital for Oregon to take a leadership position on this issue, as no sentient being, whether human or not, should have to suffer abuse. Additionally, those who abuse animals are much more likely to move on to abusing other people!

De	Anderson	Albany	OR	97321	Please allow Oregon to develop an animal abuse registry. Twice I've lived next to animal abusers and it was incredibly difficult to rescue those animals. I actually was in danger while I did this. Such a registry would've prevented these people from getting pets via adoption or purchase. Thank you.

Elizabeth	Harwood	Newport	OR	97365	Because T-Rump took the national registry down and it is an important tool! Oregon needs to make up for the federal government's blunders whenever possible - perhaps the states, one by one, can save this country from our President.

And it breaks my heart to see what they have done . My dogs are my family , which is as it should be .Please help these little souls and stop the abuse .

Ann	Donat	Lincoln City	OR	97367	All states should have a registry to prevent repeat offenders. It should be mandatory for rescues and shelters to check registry and registry should be available inter-state so abusers can't just move and get more animals to abuse.
Wendy	Gnau	Lincoln City	OR	97367	As a woman who has always considered animals a part of the family instead of just a replaceable pet, I view animal abuse the same as I do human abuse. Our cat lost it's leg when shot point blank (gun held against it's leg). He was able to hobble home and we rushed him to a vet. We knew who had done it, but couldn't prove it at the time. This same person is now in prison as he became a serial killer. Another time as a child, I was at a friends house. We were playing w/ her new puppy. It ran out into the road and was hit by a car. The person who hit it felt awful. Her brother ran in to the house to get their father so he would rush the pup to the vet. He came out, grabbed the dog and literally threw it in to the bed of his truck to die. He returned in to the house after yelling at the kids for interrupting his game on TV. The daughter of this man ran away from home multiple times as he sexually abused her; I found this out once in high school. Often animal abusers are or become human abusers, so it is good to have a registry to get an idea of any future crimes that can occur. Any time I witness animal abuse, I call the proper authorities. I have also broken car windows to rescue pets stuck inside of hot vehicles; A couple of them did not make it and the owner didn't appear to care.
TREA STAR	STAR	LINCOLN CITY	OR	97367	This registry should become a federal law for every state and nation - Until the punishment with this crime becomes severe enough, all those scum that abuse animals and kids will keep on destroying lives.
Jan	Accardo	Lincoln City	OR	97367	Too many abusers are also re-offenders.

Kathryn Shanti	Ariel	Lincoln City	OR	97367	Yes. These people need help and the animals and humans must be protected from them through the knowing of who they are. It is time to open wide the doors to this issue and make sure that everyone is protected and assisted, including the abusers who are obviously in need of professional loving care themselves.

Christine	Cody	Eugene	OR	97403	People who abuse animals should face tough sentences. We need to know who these people are. If they abuse animals, they will abuse children, spouses, and are violent and heartless in general.
Tina	Bitterle	Eugene	OR	97403	this would help animal rescues as well, I have had contact with rescues and have a dogs I got from rescues , I have see cases where fosters /adopter from from rescues where animal abusers ad neglected the animals .. rescues does there est to make sure these animals goes to good fosters or adopter but if there's no record of animal abuse ... it make it harder on rescues time we care enough to have a animal abuser registry...

Gay	Kramer-Dodd	Eugene	OR	97404	Oregon needs to have such a registry -- as much as I love my state, I know that abuse of animals is a problem that needs to be stopped. A registry is an important step in that direction.
Carla	Hervert	Eugene	OR	97404	This animal abuse registry is important for many reasons, including accountability of the offender. It has been proven that it is not uncommon for an animal abuser to also be a potential human abuser.

Thetesa	O'Hara	Eugene	OR	97405	Abuse is inexcusable. Violence begets violence. Stop it with the animals to keep them safe and all others in the path of abusers.
Elica	Pirrone	Eugene	OR	97405	Because no living creature deserves to be abused. If we can prevent more pain & suffering, we should.

Kathy	Templeman	Florence	OR	97405	I feel strongly that animals need a human voice to help them,since some people are heartless.
Monica	Johnson	Eugene	OR	97405	Keep the vampires out of the blood bank.
Deanna	Kuhn	Eugene	OR	97405	Keeping track of animal abusers would be easier. Often they just move and start up their abuse again with no fear of repercussions. We need this law.
Janette	St Pierre	Eugene	OR	97405	people that abuse animals also abuse their family members, and some are proven to be homicidal
Kim	Buchanan	Eugene	OR	97405	People who intentionally cause harm to these beautiful loving creatures need to be held accountable. Giving the public the information they need to protect animals from those who will harm them is a great idea.
Verna	Tjemsland	Eugene	OR	97405	The truth is in the fact that there is an undeniable relationship between animal and child abuse. The public has the right to know and those in authority to correct this and protect us need this information.
Jane	Nelson	Eugene	OR	97405	There a cruel people who have no right to own or even have access to any animal. Animal abuse is vile and a signal of how sick a person really is.
Elisabeth	Lake	Eugene	OR	97405	Those who abuse animals are much more likely to abuse children and their domestic partners. A registry is vital!

Tamara	Townsend	Brookings	OR	97415	Animal abuse is rampant. These people must register to be able to track these people.
Jayme	Beebe	Brookings	OR	97415	It is simple. Animal abuse and neg lect is Wrong! Keeping track of offenders is the correct thing to do if you are not going to impose strict fines, take property ability or jail these heartless persons.
Theresa	Tyler	BROOKINGS	OR	97415	Offenders of ANY kind don't stop with just one offense; they continue on and on. You can bet that once they've done this, they will, most likely, re-offend and having a registry will give law enforcement information they can use to put these people away and to make sure that they're never allowed to have animals again. They are nothing more than abject COWARDS.

Karel	Cook	Florence	OR	97439	People who neglect and abuse animals will always treat animals this way. Abuse and neglect of animals is not acceptable.
John	Raymonda	Florence	OR	97439	Repeat offenders should not be allowed to have animals.
Jill	C	Salem	OR	97439	We have a person in our neighborhood who should be on a registry like this. For years he's gotten dogs, mistreated them, they've been taken from him and put in the shelter and within a month he has another one. It's a sad, sick, ongoing scenario that doesn't stop. Having a registry of animal abuse would be as useful as knowing who the sex offenders are in the neighborhood.

mary anne	craig	springfield	OR	97477	In helping to find homeless dogs and cats good homes. I have become aware of the neglect and cruelty that animals suffer at the hands of some humans. It is crucial to be able to identify who these people are so that innocent dogs and cats won't be adopted or sold to them.

Pat	Doty	Springfield	OR	97477	It is disgusting the way some people abuse or neglect their animals. It has to stop
Patricia	Woods	Springfield	OR	97477	No person who abuses animals should be allowed to have animals or children. We need to protect those who cannot protect themselves.
Donna	Harlan	Springfield	OR	97477	Offenders should be held responsible for their abusive behavior. Their immoral actions must be held up to public scrutiny & condemnation.
Shana	Simpson	Springfield	OR	97477	We should be able to identify people who abuse animals to keep animals safe just like we identify child abusers to keep children safe.
Corinne	Brown	Springfield	OR	97477	Why not? We have sex offender registries. Why not an animal abuser registry (and a child abuse registry)?

Rosemary	Nord	Springfield	OR	97478	NO now should get away with abusing a defenseless animal.

Kim	Harris	SPRINGFIELD	OR	97478	Our animals need a voice! PLEASE have compassion for those that cannot help themselves. Ask yourself, would YOU want to be treated like this?! We need to think of ALL animals the same as we do of our helpless children. LETS STOP ANIMAL ABUSE IN OREGON!!! Animal abuse of ANY kind needs to be treated the same as CHILD ABUSE! PLEASE make it law to have ANYONE that abuses animals be registered in a animal abuse registry! Thank you. "Compassion for animals is intimately connected with goodness of character; and it may be confidently asserted that he who is cruel to animals cannot be a good man." -Schopenhauer The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated. I hold that the more helpless a creature, the more entitled it is to protection by man from the cruelty of man. - Mahatma Gandhi, Indian spiritual/political leader The question is not, can they reason? nor, Can they talk? But rather, Can they suffer? - Jeremy Bentham, 19th century Philosopher, Oxford University I regard animals and humans in the same light. All of them suffer pain, and all of them deserve compassion. Mohammad Alaa Aljaleel "Earth was created for ALL LIFE, not just human life." -Anthony D. Williams Man did not weave the web of life - he is merely a strand in it. Whatever he does to the web, he does to himself." -Chief Seattle We must fight against the spirit of unconscious cruelty with which we treat the animals. Animals suffer as much as we do. True humanity does not allow us to impose such sufferings on them. It is our duty to make the whole world recognize it. Until we extend our circle of compassion to all living beings, humanity will not find peace. - Albert Schweitzer, physician/Nobel Laureate The more I know about people, the better I like

stephen	tesluk	ashland	OR	97520	Animal abusers often move on to abusing humans - they need to register as animal abuse offenders
Michele	Levin	Ashland	OR	97520	No brainer here, we need to know these cowardly abusers before they move on to even more serious abuse!!
Nina	Council	Ashland	OR	97520	Of course the public must be allowed to access the registries. When one person gives or sells an animal to another unknown individual, everyone should be able to look at the registry. Have read about too much abuse, such horrid of abuses of horses these days.

Sherry	Amen	Bend	OR	97707	An animal abuse registry is vital for the very same reason that felons or pedophiles must register; it keeps track of convicted offenders to hopefully prevent them from offending again. Animals deserve this type of protection just as much as people do. And since it's been long proven that abuse of animals is an early warning of possible future violence towards people, by enacting an animal abuse registry you will not only help innocent animal victims, you may very well be preventing a future crime against a human life. Please implement a database of statewide animal abusers.

Tamyra	Wallace	Milton-Freewater	OR	97862	PLEASE follow the lead of Tennessee and implement an animal abuse registry. Animal abusers are evil, deranged people who most often cause harm to humans as well.
Mark	Landowski	Milton Freewater	OR	97862	Please Governor Brown enact an animal abuser registry to help in the prevention of animal abuse. I implore you to make Oregon a leader in the nation in requiring animal abusers to be registered on a registry so that they will not possess and harm another innocent animal ever again.
