

Good day. This bill is important because it keeps the restraining order intact without forcing the victim into an uncomfortable, or unnecessary situation. We want to protect sexual assault survivors at all cost and this bill would be very beneficial for their safety.