

Measure 11 Pathway to Prevention Workshop Highlights

Goals: Education, Prevention, Empowerment

When: Workshops started in March 2017 and is ongoing

Where: 17 Total Workshops reached over 500 students at 7 Portland Middle and High Schools

*PPS High Schools: 1 Workshop at Franklin High School, 4 workshops at Grant High School

*Alternative High Schools: 1 Workshop at each RAHS campus (4), 2 Workshops at Helensview

*Middle Schools: 4 Workshops at Ockley Green Middle School, 1 Workshop at Open School East

*Private School: 1 workshop at Portland Adventist Elementary School (Middle Schoolers)

Presenters: System impacted youth/adults, Defense Attorney's, social justice community leaders, SROs

Results:

Key Findings:

Question 1: 13% of students know what Measure 11 is before the workshop. About 76% of students know what Measure 11 is after the workshop.

Question 6: 80% of students falsely believe Measure 11 gives judges more discretion before the workshop. 20% of students falsely believe Measure 11 gives judges more discretion after the workshop.

Question 9 : Before the workshop, over 66% of students agree or strongly agree that laws and justice system are fair to youth like them. After the workshop, over 84% disagree or strongly disagree.

Question 10: Before the workshop, 66% of students disagree or strongly disagree that youth like them have the power to change the justice system. After the workshop, 82% agree or strongly agree.