With all the talk about racism in our great country you would think, some legislature, somewhere would realize there is only one race in the United States of America, the race of "American."

Now "American" is not to be confused with how the authors of [SB 856] define "Americans" or rather "New Americans." Read [SB 856] at your leisure to see how creative legislators are becoming in Salem.

I'm sure Senators Fagan and Fredrick have to keep "racism" alive by expanding the categories (and I guess percentages) of all the combination of peoples on God's beautiful, green earth. I don't think there is evil in their hearts by doing so for [SB 933] tries to capture "inclusivity" of all peoples.

Instead of naming this Bill as [SB 933], consider renaming the legislation the, [Senator Elizabeth Warren is really "Pocahontas" Bill]. Senators Fagan and Fredrick are going to have to amend [SB 933] to address the ethnicity, race if you will, of the "grotesque bestial natives" immigrating from the Island of Dr. Moreau.

At what point is racism going to stop? Especially, state sponsored racism expanded by [SB 933]? All humans are made in the image of God therefore; how many more sub-categories, percentages, micro-percentages are people ready to identify as being integral to soothing their psyches so they won't become despondent and jump off a bridge?

How about "eliminating" the race card from the "American" deck? Works for me.

I oppose [SB 933]-no surprise here.
