

Why are we allowing the insurance industry to "run" our health care when they actually don't provide any? Why not replace the monies they spend for marketing and administration with the same amount put into actual health care? Get rid of the industry!

june hemmingson, Albany