

The flaws in this bill are too many to list and it is atrocious that in our society it is even being proposed. But, rather than go into all of its issues I will just list ONE that is SO huge it should clearly stand on its own as reason enough to kill this terrible bill. Holding someone responsible for the what a criminal does with items that have been stolen from them would be an absolute failure of our justice system. By this logic, then next time I go out and drink too much I believe I will just steal a car... because by this logic my DUI and any harm I do to anyone else is clearly and obviously the responsibility of the owner of the car I stole. Please stop this partisan political garbage and govern our state in a manner that is reasonable and benefits ALL of your constituents, not just the fringes that demonstrate and complain the most.
