

Why I ask, is this body trying to take away a sacred right earned by the blood and sacrifice of our founding Fathers? The right to own and possess a simple tool called a firearm. It is written in the Constitution that this right shall not be infringed upon. It is not a murky right. It is written very clearly. It has withstood for hundreds of years. Please use common sense and do not take away this unique right. Jim from Newberg.

Sent from my iPad