

you call it what its not a public emergency,, an average of 300 to 400 people are killed nationally by all rifles about nine for each state out of all these how many were ar15 , so called assault or ghost guns ,,how many were large caliber, since when is histaria and propaganda used to make law for problems and events that don't exist, these guns are not the problem your the problem we have more people dieing from opiates and live destroyed by meth and alcohol and fast automobile so how does this become a priorty for our legislature very few gun crime are solved by gun registration or serial numbers yet what are we spending on this you people are out of control