

You can vote all that you want you can rule in all your null and void laws all that you want, your illegal laws will not fly, cannot legally fly. Have you learned to say unconstitutional? No one, no one can touch an inalienable right, no one can take it from another. Why? Because these rights come from the Great I Am above.

Now if you wish to be a pinko commie fag loving who're why you just go ahead and try to take guns from gun owners.

You know as well as we do, you can put as many laws as you like on the books; the criminals will still get guns.

Methinks that you want a society that you commie limp dick fags can control, you best think again and think real hard Thanks for your time, A concerned Patriot.
