

This law violates the inalienable right of all Oregonians to defend themselves and their families. Disarming law-abiding citizens is inviting violence into our communities and our homes. Gun-free zones are invitations to mass shootings and attacking law-abiding Oregonians isn't going to make anyone safer. In fact, it will put us in danger.

Richard Nilsson
Jacksonville, OR