

Requiring oregon residents to store guns in a way that renders them useless for purposes of self defense is in direct conflict with the purpose of the 2nd amendment. If gun owners should be punished for the unlawful use of their stolen property then what about stolen cars or stolen money? Most of my friends and family are law abiding gun owners and this makes us potential criminals even if we haven't broken any laws.

Please consider that the ownership of firearms is the last line of defense against all enemies. Foreign and domestic
