Authorizes the Oregon Department of Agriculture (ODA) to establish annual permit fees by rule for both concentrated and confined animal feeding operations not to exceed $500, $1,000, and $3,500 for small, medium, and large operations. Allows ODA to adopt rules that establish size category tiers for confined animal feeding operations for the purposes of annual permit fee assessment. Establishes a maximum total of $10,000 for an individual permit-holder to pay for annual CAFO permit fees. Requires ODA to charge a permit application fee for new concentrated or confined animal feeding operations or for the transfer of an NPDES or WPCF permit, not to exceed $75, $100, and $300 for small, medium, and large operations. Establishes a maximum total of $15,000 for an individual permit applicant to pay for new concentrated or confined animal feeding operations. Becomes operative on January 1, 2020. BACKGROUND:

The Oregon Department of Agriculture (ODA) issues Confined Animal Feeding Operations (CAFO) permits to facilities that meet the state or federal CAFO definition and pay an annual permit fee. ORS 561.255 directs ODA to charge small, medium, and large CAFOs $100, $200, and $300 respectively, and to define size category tiers by rule. CAFO owners are currently charged a $50 permit application fee.

House Bill 2061 would require ODA to establish annual permit fees and permit application fees for confined and concentrated animal feeding operations by rule, with statutorily-established maximums.
