

I oppose HB2013.

I believe this bill would automatically strip Second Amendment rights without due process from the respondents of certain protective orders if they do not request a hearing or withdraw their request before a hearing takes place. There do not seem to be a specific set of guidelines available to request such a hearing.

Thanks,
Robert Morton
Oregonian

Sent from my iPhone