

Good afternoon, I am very opposed to this unconstitutional attempt to infringe our second amendment rights. I am a veteran and took an oath 46 years ago to defend the Constitution against all enemies, foreign and domestic. The oath never expires. Should you pass this ill-conceived law you will awaken a sleeping giant and it will not be pretty. I would suggest that just because you have a stick it might not be prudent to poke the sleeping bear a few feet from you.

Thank you,

Dave Wagner
