

To who it may concern,

I am writing this letter just to be a reminder to be very careful of that thin line you are walking with restricting people of firearms before being proven guilty of a crime. This will soon fall into the unconstitutional area that all red flag laws fall into making a person provide proof of their innocence when the rights granted to us makes us innocent until proven guilty.

Bradly Mabie

Oregon Resident