

I'm reading the details of the proposed Amendment to SB 978 and totally disagree with this moving forward. The amendment puts stricter laws on law abiding citizens while criminals will never be impacted. A gun that is stolen (which is a crime) and used to commit a crime the gun owner can be held accountable....insane! This is just one of the many problems with this amendment. I 100% reject this proposal