Re: House Bill 3280—Support

Chair Wagner, Vice-Chair Thomsen and members of the Committee,

On behalf of the more than 6300 members of the American Association of University Professors in Oregon, our collective bargaining chapters at the University of Oregon, Portland State University, Oregon State University, and Oregon Institute of Technology, and our faculty members across Oregon, I ask that you please support HB 3280.

House Bill 3280 would add a graduate student position to the Higher Education Coordinating Commission (HECC) and convert five non-voting positions—community college undergraduate student, public university undergraduate student, community college faculty, public university faculty, and staff member—to voting positions. Providing a vote to existing commissioner positions will give equal voice to those commissioners most directly connected to the higher education system the HECC is charged with overseeing. As the HECC takes up important matters such as the approval of tuition increases, authorization of programmatic changes, and the establishment of transfer pathways, the fully realized voices of faculty, staff, and students are necessary. These voices will help the HECC arrive at decisions that are informed by those most directly impacted, improving the buy in of their represented constituencies.

The addition of a graduate student commissioner is also essential because graduate students occupy a unique position in our public universities. They are not only students, but also frontline teachers and researchers through their work as graduate teaching and research assistants. The creation of a graduate student commissioner will allow the HECC to make well informed decisions that are responsive to the experiences of graduate students.

Please pass HB 3280 to give Oregon's students, faculty, and staff full voices on the Higher Education Coordinating Commission.

Thank you for your consideration of our comments.

Sincerely,
