

I write to voice my concern about animals who have been used for research. They have given so much; it is only fair that we provide a cruelty-free life for them after they are no longer needed for research. I don't see a down side. Please approve this bill in the Oregon House of Reps.

Thank you for considering my comments.

Gayle Peterson
Corvallis, Oregon