CAMPUS SECURITY TIMELINE

2015	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•COCC security agrees to turn over narcotics they have unlawfully seizing and storing.•A cell phone is found hidden in the women's bathroom, later determined to have been live broadcasting. COCC returns phone to suspect.•COCC announces their legal team has defined them as a law enforcement agency.•Mark Alan Mahoney begins stalking young female students in the campus library, stealing their clothing for sexual gratification and as trophies. COCC takes reports and begins their own investigations and surveillance operations without notifying Bend PD.
2016	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•COCC security announces it has jurisdiction to enforce most federal, state, county laws and city ordinances on campus and adjacent streets and roadways.•Kaylee Sawyer is kidnapped by a COCC security officer on campus. He uses the COCC issued police equipment to restrain her.•Aundrea Mayes is kidnapped in Salem using the same COCC issued police equipment and transported to California by the same COCC security guard.
2017	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•An MOU is signed between the City of Bend and COCC, in which COCC agrees to stop conducting criminal investigations, to call Bend PD when crimes occur, and to provide Bend PD with copies of reports they take.•Mark Alan Mahoney is arrested by the Bend Police after a victim reports her coat stolen at COCC directly to Bend Police. Bend Detectives arrest Mahoney within two hours, ending his serial stalking. It is determined Mahoney has stalked and stolen from between 8-11 female students on the COCC Campus to fulfil his fantasies.
2018	<ul style="list-style-type: none">•A review by the Bend PD crime analyst using open sources determines COCC security has underreported crimes occurring on campus by up to 75% in the 12-month period following the signing of the MOU and, in turn, continued to conduct criminal investigations and file reports only in their office.•A female student reports being attacked in the parking lot next to where Kaylee Sawyer was murdered to COCC security who then conduct a full investigation but do not call Bend PD or forward their reports.•COCC Security unlawfully stops, detains and questions a civilian, believing he is a suspect in an attack near the parking lot on Campus.•A series of five unlawful entries into motor vehicles occurs on COCC campus. Campus security responds, takes reports, investigates the crimes but does not notify the Bend Police.

SUPPRESSION OF CRIME REPORTING IMPACTING CITIZEN RIGHTS

QUOTES

“So....you know I drove up to her and I’m like hey you want a ride somewhere, I can take you there. So I think she kinda trusted me, trusted the position.”

Edwin Lara, Kaylee’s murderer

“I would assume they were forwarding the information to Bend PD.” “If they weren’t sending it over to you, I’d be upset.”

2017 victim of a crime on campus who reported their theft to campus security

“Campus security told me I had an ‘option to report it for me’ to the Bend Police.”

2017 victim of a crime on campus who reported their theft to campus security

CHALLENGES WITH PRESENT AUTHORITY AND DANGEROUS PRACTICES OF HIGHER EDUCATION SAFETY UNITS

- There is no rule or law allowing for the removal of stop and frisk authority from campus safety officers
- Those suffering mental health crises are being locked into caged security vehicles
- Campus Security units are detaining individuals from between 1 and 4 hours.
- A lack of Statewide standardized practices by higher education safety units
- Crimes going unsolved and stolen property not being recovered.
- Violation of victim's rights.
- Abuse of "stop and frisk" authority.
- Expanded interpretation of ORS 341.300.
- Use of ORS 133.225: Private Person Arrest by public employees.
- No clear standards as a result of the blurring between:
 - University Police
 - Special campus security
 - General security officers.
- Students and Citizens are unable to differentiate between campus security and police officers.
- COCC's position is "no statute says we can't operate like police."
- COCC's position is "no statute requires us to turn over the crime reports we take."
- Police tax dollars spent fighting college tax dollars to protect citizens rights.

SOLUTIONS AND CLARITY PROVIDED BY KAYLEE'S LAW

- Will provide the tools need to insure unqualified individuals are not given police authority as campus safety officers.
- Provides clear guidance on who is and isn't a law enforcement agency and clarifies roles and responsibilities for higher education security units statewide
- Eliminates the abuse of the stop and frisk which led to Kaylee's death
- It will end stops and frisks which are not be captured and reported as required by Bill 2355
- It will end the practice by university safety units of detaining and transporting the mentally ill while locked in the rear of security vehicles with cages.
- Will take the campus safety units the next level of professionalism and standardize their operations State wide.
- Reduces the confusion between campus security and police officers by students
- Establishes a path to ensuring citizen and students rights as victims are honored.
- Has potential of reducing wasted tax dollars on litigation.
- Reduces the ability for rogue campus security units to operate in the margins of the current statutes.
- All Resulting in safer campuses.
