

Greetings,

As an Oregon resident and voter, I have to ask why in the world would the people sworn to represent the people attempt to take the people's option to start online petitions. This is not a democracy or socialist government - it is a republic. Please do not vote to take one of the options for people to express their opinions that might otherwise not be heard.

Blessings,
Estella Bitney
Philomath, OR 97370