

We are advised that SB870 could be voted on today. We are alarmed that our elected representatives would declare Oregon presidential votes null-and-void...what kind of government tells it's people that the votes of other states are more important than the voters of their own state?

Obviously any elected official who votes for such an absurd idea does not really care about the interests of voters in Oregon.

Ed, Linda and Abigail Schreiber
Brookings, OR