Meeting Dates: 4/25, 5/23

WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

Authorizes city to provide for as much as a 20-year ramp-up to full taxation rate for property in an annexed territory. Adds, for purposes of "island annexation," corporate boundaries of another city as a permitted portion of the boundary surrounding the territory to be annexed.

FISCAL: Has minimal fiscal impact

REVENUE: No revenue impact

SENATE FLOOR VOTE: 29-1-0-0; Nay: Riley

ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

Annexation is the process of incorporating a piece of property into the boundaries of a city, making the property and those who live there eligible for services provided by the city. This action can be initiated by the city or by the property owner. Annexation is a locally driven process with guiding state statutes.

Senate Bill 92 would authorize a city to provide for as much as a 20-year ramp-up to full taxation rate for property in an annexed territory.
