

Dear legislators,

I am deeply troubled by your reasoning that local citizen desires for how their neighborhoods function should be over ruled by people who have never visited, much less lived in those areas. You are representing the developers to the detriment of the people who pay taxes that they thought were being used for the betterment of their communities. You should be ashamed of yourselves.

Thank you for your consideration.

Jay Goodman

Portland, Oregon