

Hello, I am writing to you to implore you to vote yes on this legislation. I believe it is a common sense proposal that will essentially codify what is the normative mode of operation for bicyclists traversing our city streets. If motorists had to stick their foot out the door at every stop to gain momentum to get through the intersection, I believe this would have become law a long time ago. Thanks for taking the time to read my thoughts.

De Henderson
2500 SE 48th Ave
Portland, Or 97206