

I would like to express my support for the Idaho Stop Bill. The California study showed that it made no change in deaths or injuries when it was implemented in Idaho. It is long over due in Oregon.