

I am writing in support of SB 998, which proposes to legalize the “Idaho Stop” in Oregon.

I live in Portland, where I commute to work daily by bike. Rolling stops are far more efficient than full stops for me, and I do them slowly so that I can (and do) stop completely when necessary. So I’m looking for Oregon to make them legal.

-----
Mark H Linehan