SUMMARY

Restates existing requirement that public records requester make request for records in writing.
Requires requester to state how requester intends to use records.

OPEN GOVERNMENT IMPACT

Legislative Counsel has not adopted standards for drafting measures that establish exemptions from disclosure of public records.

This measure requires public records requests to be in writing, with the request describing with particularity the records being sought and containing a statement of how the requester intends to use the requested records.

This measure does not impact public interests in disclosure that would be served if public records were subject to mandatory disclosure.
