SUMMARY

Authorizes city that was annexed into special district to petition county board for withdrawal from district. Provides that if city that was annexed into special district upon election called only in such city wishes to withdraw from district, election called to withdraw city from district shall also be held only in city. Changes requirement that withdrawal petition must be approved or denied depending on feasibility of providing district service to territory described in petition to option for county board to approve or deny petition based on feasibility.

Declares emergency, effective on passage.
