BACKGROUND:

The Department of Corrections (DOC) averages just under 15,000 individuals in its care and custody at any point in time. Approximately 95 percent of those individuals will return to the community after incarceration, with approximately 440 individuals released each month. Over the course of the last seven years, DOC has focused its efforts on the successful reentry of individuals after incarceration. A piece of that work has been to provide reformation and treatment in a normalized environment and a humane manner.

House Bill 3146 replaces all statutory references to "inmate" with "adult in custody."
